

What Interest Really Is

By R. T. ELLIOTT, K.C.

The people who really know what interest really means will never tell. The man on the street generally thinks that interest is a reward paid for the use of money, but this is in reality only the method of bookkeeping adopted to keep track of the money and the interest and gives no idea of the real nature of interest as a commercial force.

Interest is a fixed profit paid to the furnisher of money for use in any undertaking or business and is paid whether the undertaking or business succeeds or fails.

This is the reason why, in every instance and in every result, interest is destructive as regards human life; and is the working incentive to deflation which destroys all real estate and home and farm values, and breaks down all wage scales and salary standards.

It is a very simple calculation to prove that once all the institutions of government, all the public utilities, and all the business and commercial undertakings of a nation are made liable to pay interest, then that nation is surely headed for financial collapse and deflation and ruin of the families of that nation.

It is absolutely true to say that even a very moderate rate of interest applied to all the functions of a nation will in a few years eat up all the assets of that nation.

The most striking proof of this truth is shown by the financial collapse of the United States which President Roosevelt and his advisers are taking emergency measures to remedy.

Therefore when the issuance of currency in circulation is entrusted to privately owned corporations, there is conferred upon those corporations power to dictate the terms upon which that currency can be used. The first term is always the payment of interest as a fixed profit out of every business and undertaking, and whether that business or undertaking is succeeding or failing.

The absolutely certain, the never avoidable result, is always and every time the coming of a deflation, which wipes out the savings and home values of the thrifty classes of the people, and tends to distress and destitution those classes of the people who rely upon their earnings for living expenses.

These are proven facts which admit of no contradiction or qualification. Interest when allowed to govern the affairs of the nation under a power entrusted to private corporations to issue the currency on which the interest is based will eat up the assets of any nation and bring about deflation and ruin. Consider the United States since 1930 and Canada since 1930.

It is positively true that the old order cannot change, and will not change, until the nation takes control of the issuing of currency—and relieves the affairs of the nation from the unpayable burden of universally applied interest as a fixed profit upon success and failure alike.

The control of currency by private corporations leads inevitably to the creation of specially privileged tariff preferences and undertakings; because the primary fixed profit of interest is made more certain and easy of collection by the contracting of commerce into specially privileged hands. The result of the contracting of the volume of commerce of the nation thereby caused, spells ruin for the thrifty and home-owning classes.

The true financial function of a government is to issue legal tender to the extent to which it can be insured of retirement by payment of a fixed sinking fund secured upon earnings. Had this policy been adopted in building the railways of Canada, neither the C.P.R. or the C.N.R. would have had any interest-bearing debt; the rates could be substantially less and wages and real profits substantially more. Follow the consequences of this policy and you will see that issues of sinking fund secured legal tender would have met every need; could have been easily absorbed into the development of the nation; and would by this time have been largely retired by the sinking fund.

There is no answer to these facts—except an answer based upon the alleged P. T. Barnum theory that the public love to be humbugged.

Also there will be no beneficial change of the old order until the source of financial disease is grappled with at the source; and legal tender made a national utility instead of a destructive national liability.

RURAL SCHOOL AREAS APPOINT NEW TRUSTEES

All Vacancies Filled by Acclamations—Few Attend Meetings

PROVOST, Jan. 17.—A number of local school annual meetings were held Saturday. Elections, however, were conspicuous by their absence, every district reporting no far having filled vacancies on their boards by acclamation.

The weather was bitterly cold and the roads were so icy that the attendance at the meetings was a minimum and in many cases only a bare quorum turned out.

Provost, Provost Henry Hutt, who acted as chairman at the meeting, withdrew from the board and W. Fleming, a former member, was elected by acclamation. The other members of the board are Mrs. W. O. York and H. O. Caniff.

Opening of Parliament Is Brilliant Function In Dominion Capital

OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—Rebelling against the power from the north, the parliament of Canada assembled today in a brilliant gathering. The Senate Chamber for the opening of parliament, long before the arrival of the Governor-General, the impressive red curtains of the upper House with its ceiling of gold and its luxuriant fittings were filled with guests.

On the floor of the Senate, in galleries, and overlooking the adjoining corridors, wives and daughters of leading men of the nation and women who have won distinction in many fields of activity gathered as the East of Beasborough, surrounded by a residential suburb, from the Senate.

Selection in years has the demand for tickets of admission been as keen as during the past few days. Hundreds of women who were kept in place owing to the restricted capacity of the Upper House.

The Countess of Beasborough was a rich Magyar model of blue and silver lace draped on very simple lines with court train of the same material, lined with pink velvet in two tones. She wore a diamond tiara and a lovely pearl necklace.

Her Excellency was attended by Mrs. Mrs. Gordon, in a costume of white more with a touch of blue, and a diamond tiara and a lovely pearl necklace.

HERE'S one thing that gets us down. We can face the day at 40 below zero, and have weathered many a tough spot, but when it comes to the Northern Alberta Women's Bazaar, we're what a poor lot to do? They look here from afar, these energetic women who are working so hard to help the poor. They line up on a narrow little sheet of ice, throw back rocks and sweep like all possessed. It means something to them, that what they are doing. They are just a poor working girl trying to earn a living. Then come a half dozen of them, sitting on the floor, and they are just a poor working girl trying to earn a living. Early Settler Of

Viking Is Buried

VIKING, Jan. 15.—James Pickering, proprietor of the Viking meat market, died Tuesday at his home here. He leaves a widow and one stepdaughter.

He was one of the early settlers of the Viking district, having come here in 1907. He was secretary-treasurer of the Iron Creek municipal district. He purchased the meat market here and has operated that until his death.

Funeral services were held from the St. Mary's Catholic church in Viking on Thursday at 10:30 a.m. Rev. Father O'Neill officiating.

DAILY TRUE STORY

ANOTHER TIN BOX

By Llewellyn Brown

Baldwinville was a small city count with him. Danforth, he had had married a sort of second count to his grandfather, but that was two generations before his time.

"The thing to do," Theo declared,

was to get a watchman. He paid

old Eben at his home and force him to hand over his tin box."

The time came when Mayor

Baldwin, his City Attorney, two officers and a crowd of citizens ready to go to Eben's home in the evening and force him to give up his tin box of what Theo called

"illegitimate graft money," as though there might be some honesty and not graft money on record.

At the corner of Elm and Swaney streets, Mayor Baldwin was somewhat annoyed to find Young Lawyer Barker and twenty solid old citizens waiting.

Since Theo's father was a leading citizen and his uncle president of the bank, the solid city fathers had seen Eben at an old desk with the tin box in front of him.

EXPLOSIONS
FREQUENTLY ARE HEARD AT DISTANCES OF A HUNDRED MILES AWAY, WHILE THERE ARE LARGE AREAS OF INAUDIBILITY MUCH NEARER. THE SOURCE OF SOUND IN THESE "ZONES OF SILENCE" ARE PRODUCED BY CONDITIONS OF THE ATMOSPHERE. FROM A COLLECTION OF REPORTS ON RECENT OBSERVATIONS IT APPEARS THAT THERE IS USUALLY A LARGE AREA OF AUDIBILITY SURROUNDING THE SOURCE OF SOUND, AND BEYOND THIS IS A CIRCULAR ZONE OF INAUDIBILITY. THEN, BEGINNING ABOUT 100 MILES FROM THE SOURCE, THERE IS A SECOND ZONE OF AUDIBILITY, EXTENDING PERHAPS 150 MILES FROM THE SOURCE.

WATKINS LEADS IN TWO MATCHES

Fort Saskatchewan and North Edmonton curlers split even in their exhibition game at the North Edmonton Club yesterday, each having a triumph.

Graham's rink from the Fort defeated the North Edmonton by a 3-0 score after 13 thrilling ends, while Wegeron of North Edmonton turned aside the other Fort Saskatchewan threat, defeating them by an 11-0 score.

After the brace of thrilling encounters, members of the four rinks had lunch and an enjoyable time was had by all present.

The personnel of the rinks were as follows: Fort Saskatchewan rinks: H. Coyle, A. H. Wood, J. S. Wright, and H. Thoms, skip. North Edmonton rinks: E. Skerdt, W. Little, F. Pengelly, and T. Wilson, skip. Wegeron, G. Campbell, D. McKillop, and E. Wegeron, skip.

Defeat Olds Elks by 4-2 For First Time This Season

DRUMHELLER, Jan. 17.—Olds Elks suffered their first defeat at the hands of league leading Drumheller Miners Wednesday night in a hard battle which got underway after 10:30 p.m. and concluded early Thursday morning with the Miners clinching four more tallies and Olds scoring a brace before the season was ended.

The opening frame was a close one, with the Miners scoring early in the second frame after defence man Anderson had picked up the puck from Ross and skated down to pass the rubber to the net.

BREWS DEADLOCK

Sandwiched frame was nicely won by Gaudin, who broke the deadlock with his initial tally, coming back again with another goal 30 seconds to get an assist when the winger bulged and sent the puck down to a heavy fall and had to be carried off for the rest of the period, weakening the Elks' forward string.

Edmonton Athletic Club Faces Elimination In Junior Race But Have Chance To Win

By JACK DEARIN

Edmonton Athletic Club's hopes of entering the Junior Hockey League play-offs glimmered faintly today. Again they absorbed defeat at the hands of South Side Athletics and now face certain elimination, following their 3-0 defeat last night at the Arena.

WINNERS INCREASE LOSS ON SECOND PLACE

It was E.A.C.'s sixth straight defeat, having won one and drawn one in their eight starts and are now only three points away from South Side in the league.

TAKE UPPER HAND

It was in the second period on a goal scoring spree that South Side gained the upper hand and held E.A.C. to one goal for a lead of 2-1 and again in the third period South Side outscored E.A.C. 3-0 by a 2-1 margin for their all-time record of 5-2 triumph.

MELD SCORES

Danny McLeary, fleet-footing winger for the tri-coloured team, was the first to score on their way through the first period. Billy Smith five minutes later started on his three-goal scoring act and put the South Side even on Jack Amersworth's shot.
